Something of a general rush to the buying side of the wheat market quick-buying side of the wheat market quick-ly ensued, especially on the part of pit speculators who had previously been sellers. The upward swing of the mar-ket was also furnished momentum as a result of word that Buropeans had tak-en a liberal amount of wheat today and that fresh rains had fallen in Argentina impending the harvest there. Under such circumstances, and with steri-ing at a new high record, the wheat market closed at the topmost level reached. Corn and oats paralleled the action of wheat. Renewed demand for corn was reported from the west and southwest. Provisions held fairly steady in line

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY

Washington, Dec. 6.-Reduction of the maximum income surtax rate from the ment against the further issuance of tax present 50 per cent to not more than 25 exempt securities, the treasury secretary per cent, and the closing up so far as possible of existing avenues of escape from federal taxes are urged by Secretary. Mellon in his annual report, transmitted today to congress. No general revision of the revenue laws is proposed nor are additional taxes suggested, Mr. Mellon expressing the hope of meeting any indicated government de-ficit through collection of back taxes and income from other sources.

The treasury secretary informs congress that to attempt to stop the gaps through which there is an avoidance of said, was on account of the recest execution of Greek officials.

In his resignation, addressed to the Greek minister of foreign affairs, he declared that he "cannot co-operate with a regime which dyes his hands with Greek blood, insults the moral sentiment of the whole world and which, if it does not disappear, if it does not call the people to the elections to appoint a legal government, leads the country to disorder, to anarchy and to destruction."

tax payments to the government will not be enough because the existing rates of surtax "put such heavy pressure on the larger taxpayers to reduce their taxable incomes" that new ones would surely be found. He added that the high rates "sound productive," but that the fact remains that they are becoming increasingly inefective and are yielding less and less revenue each year.

Then bluntly he tells congress that the time has come to "face the facts conditions which now prevail and which, he asserts, are not wholesome from the point of view of business or industrial development, and, at the same time, are on account of the recent ex- tax payments to the government will
